Choose Psychiatry in Scotland:
A recruitment and networking Event
22-23 MARCH 2019

About the event

RCPsych in Scotland is hosting a recruitment and networking event on the above dates in Edinburgh. This event is aimed at medical students, foundation doctors and CT1's, who are considering a career in psychiatry.

The programme is currently being finalized but will commence on Friday afternoon (for medical students only) and continue onto Saturday for a full day of presentations and sessions about current topics and training in psychiatry. The day will finish with a networking reception.

To register your interest, please contact Susan Richardson at RCPsych in Scotland by email (Susan.richardson@rcpsych.ac.uk) or call 0131 220 2910.

Please note travel bursaries will be available for this event. Application forms are available on request.
