In-person Course

28th Advanced Gastroenterology & Hepatology Course

Thursday 6 - Friday 7 February 2025

Venue: 11 Queen Street, Edinburgh, EH2 1JQ

We are delighted that this well-established two-day course will return as an in-person only event. Trainees and consultants from across the UK and globally will find this advanced course of great interest to them.

The course will provide an update on the latest evidence base for the management and treatment of gastrointestinal and liver conditions presented by our expert faculty, including:

- Endoscopic mucosal dissection (SED) in the upper GI tract – Dr Julia Gauci, Edinburgh
- Diagnosis and management of coeliac disease – Professor David Sanders, Sheffield
- IBD – before, during & after pregnancy – Dr Oseme Etomi, London
- Surgery in IBD – the future is here – Ms Katherine Baker, Oxford
- New therapies for MASLD – Professor Phil Newsome, London
- Interactions of alcohol and MASLD – Professor Ewan Forrest, Glasgow
- Hepatocellular carcinoma (HCC) surveillance – Dr Timothy Cross, Liverpool
- Coagulation in liver disease – Dr Mike Williams, NHS Lothian

All grades of medical, nursing, scientific staff and allied health professionals are most welcome.

Come along and join us in what promises to be a stimulating two days of education and networking opportunities.
